

JANUARY

19

Marca X
An exhibition by and for LGBTQIA Latinx artists exploring themes of empowerment, community, representation, and visibility.
Free
Tickets: bit.ly/marcax18

19

Mambo Mania: Eguie Castrillo
Step back in time for a Palladium night with this Grammy-winning timbalero and his big band.
$25
Tickets: bit.ly/mambo18

FEBRUARY

25

Hecho en Puelto Rico: Con el agua hasta el cuello

Celebrate Puerto Rican resilience during this powerful monologue by Angel Vázquez, exploring the island's current economic crisis.
$20
Tickets: bit.ly/elcuello18

MARCH

1

Mujeres

Celebrate Women's History month with art created and inspired by two Latina's cultural heritage.
Free
Tickets: bit.ly/mujeres18

23

Cuentos del ayer es hoy: Roy Brown

Listen to art in protest with this concert that reminds us of what we can accomplish together.
$30
Tickets: bit.ly/roybrown18

In partnership with
Celebrity Series of Boston

Voci Angelica Trio

March 17th, 3pm
Free
Tickets: bit.ly/passages18

APRIL

6

Emerging Latino Artists

Featuring new artists of Latin American origin or heritage working within innovative and contemporary visual art production in New England.
Free
Tickets: bit.ly/emerge18

7

Los Colores de Frida

Bring the whole family to enjoy this bilingual one-woman show about the great Mexican painter Frida Kahlo.
Free
Tickets: bit.ly/frida18

21

Teatro Breve

Have a laugh with the sharp wit and masterful sketches of this Puerto Rican comedy troupe.
$20 - $30
Tickets: bit.ly/teatro18

MAY

5

Armando Manzanero

Enjoy an evening of romance with this Grammy-winning musician, performing some of the most beautiful music ever created.
$20 - $30
Tickets: bit.ly/armando18

10

Paredes en Fuego

Encourage our young activists as they unveil their original artworks inspired by current events and personal experiences.
Free
Tickets: bit.ly/fuego18

Download this calendar:
bit.ly/spring18arts

Made possible by: